CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE SECURITY RESILIENCE

The June 2026 Black Sky Symposium Exercise Reinforced a Critical Reality -
Critical Infrastructure Interdependencies & Security Complexity Continue to Expand
Increasing the Potential for Disruptions to Cascade Across Organizations, Sectors, Jurisdictions, Ecosystems and Communities
Yet, Protection and Response Remain Too Often Divided by Organizational, Sectoral, Jurisdiction and Public-Private Boundaries.

FROM BLACK SKY 2026 TO SECURITY RESILIENCE

The Findings and Lessons Learned from Black Sky 2026 Advanced the Implementation of:
The Global Security Resilience Alliance (GSRA)
The Critical Infrastructure Security Resilience Architecture (CI-SRA)
Development of Security Resilience Requirements To Strengthen Resilience & Alignment of Public-Private Response Protocols
In Preparation for Black Sky 2027, Critical Infrastructure Owners & Operators are Collaborating in a Secure Environment to Review, Verify, and Validate
Master CORE • Sector-Specific • Subsector • Cross-Sector • Ecosystem • Specialized Security Resilience Requirements
We Encourage Your Participation.
Invited Participants Receive the GSRA Charter - Outlining the Mission, Governance, and Critical Infrastructure Resilience Architecture

BLACK SKY 2027 — REVIEW • EXERCISE • OPERATIONALIZE

Black Sky Symposium 2027 Brings Together Public-Private Critical Infrastructure Leaders to:

REVIEW Security Resilience Architecture & Requirements
EXERCISE Security Resilience Requirements & Public-Private Response Capabilities Against Real World Scenarios
IDENTIFY Gaps, Lessons Learned & Opportunities for Improvement
ADVANCE Security Resilience Operational Readiness & Implementation
